The henpecked man who has to hold the baby while mamma washes the dishes doesn't need all the sympathy. There's the poor dub who hasn't any children and whose wife makes him water the gold fish, feed the canary and launder the poodle while she peroxides '71—count 'em—71 hairs left in her Crowning Beauty.

NEWS OF MILLERSBURG

—Miss Irene Tackett is visiting friends at Paris.

—Mrs. Emma Long returned Friday after a visit to Miss Lula Long, at Georgetown.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McIntyre will entertain this evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Thaxton.

—Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. George M. Huff at Carlisle, Sunday afternoon.

—Mr. John Shy, who has been ill for several weeks, was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, in Lexington, Friday.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church gave a pie and candy sale at the Exchange Bank Saturday. A nice little sum was realized.

—There will be an entertainment by the student body of the Public School at the school building Wednesday, beginning at 2 p. m. It will consist of readings, monologue and music. Public cordially invited.

—Major W. C. Owens, of Louisville, arrived Friday to be present at the funeral of his nephew, Mr. C. E. Bryan, Saturday. He will probably remain here until Mr. Bryan's affairs are adjusted, as he is the lawful heir.

—The annual reception of the Juniors and Seniors of the M. F. C. will be held Friday evening. There will be more than twenty in the receiving line, and the occasion promises to be one of the brilliant events of the season.

—THE SICK.—Robert, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chanslor, is improving nicely. Mr. J. J. Peed and Mrs. J. H. Burroughs are also improving. Miss Wilsa Lynae Ammerman is somewhat better. Mrs. Russell Mitchell is improving slowly. Mrs. James Thorne continues about the same.

—The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist church gave a silk tea Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. sandwiches were served. Candy was sold. A neat little sum was realized. Piano and phonograph music was heard during the hours. The afternoon was delightful, spent. The social part of the meeting was one of the pleasant features of the occasion.

—Mr. Charles E. Bryan, aged 44, died at the Taylor House after a brief illness, about 7:30 p. m. Thursday. Mr. Bryan was a bachelor and occupied rooms in the Bryan flat, the property belonging to him, and took his meals at the Taylor House. For quite a long time he has been a sufferer from stomach trouble, which, in most every attack, brought on a sympathetic heart trouble. For the past three months he seemed to be in failing health, and many of his friends did not regard him as being long for this world. Tuesday evening he was seized with a light attack with his stomach and went to his physician for medicine. Wednesday morning he felt better but after eating his dinner at the Taylor House Wednesday afternoon, just as he was leaving he house he was seized with another attack and fell. He was at once taken to a room in the house and his physician, Dr. W. G. Dalley, summoned. Coupled with this attack there was also a slight stroke of paralysis. From the time he was stricken he continued to grow worse until the end. Mr. Bryan had resided in Millersburg during his entire life, and was the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bryan, both of whom preceded him to the grave about eight and ten years ago. He was a member of one of the most prominent families in Central Kentucky, and was a man of fine intellect. He owned considerable property in Millersburg, and has but few relatives, the nearest of kin being Major W. C. Owens, of Louisville, who was elected to Congress from the Seventh district in 1896, serving one term, and unless he has left a will, Mr. Owens will inherit his property. However, rumor has it that he has left a will, and his estate will go to his second cousin, Mrs. C. W. Corrington, of whom he was very fond and she of him. Mrs. G. W. Bryan, mother of the deceased, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Lexington, while his father died at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati. All three members of the Bryan household were interred in the Millersburg cemetery from the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Corrington. This is rather a remarkable coincidence. Mr. and Mrs. Corrington were very fond of the entire family, and at all times in their afflictions their deepest sympathies went out to them. Not only is this true but they did what they could to alleviate their sufferings and constantly with them in sickness. Since the death of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bryan Mr. C. E. Bryan has suffered more than one attack, and at all such times was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corrington, where he was lovingly and tenderly cared for. This is something that is commended by all who know these good people, and when the scroll of life is rolled up, and they have passed their mantles to other shoulders there surely will be many stars in their crown.

—There will be a regular meeting of Amity Lodge No. 40, F. & A. M., Tuesday evening. At the last meeting of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, a committee was appointed to compile a history of the Kentucky lodges. In pursuance of the ordinance of the Grand Lodge Amity Lodge appointed a committee at the recent meeting for the purpose of preparing a history of Amity Lodge. It is especially urged that all the older members of the lodge be present, and come prepared to give us something relating to the early history of Amity Lodge.

—Mrs. Wm. T. Thorne, aged 69, died at her home Monday about 4 a. m., after a ten days' illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Thorne had been a delicate woman the latter part of her life. She with her husband resided in the Colville neighborhood, where she was born and had spent her entire life. She was a Miss Wilson, and was married early in life to Mr. William T. Thorne. This union was blessed with one daughter, who is now Mrs. John R. Fisher. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, with two little daughters, Mabel and Gladys, reside in the Thorne home. She is also survived by four sisters, Mrs. Wm. Long, of King's Mountain; Mrs. Margaret Cook and Mrs. Jesse Endicott, of the neighborhood, and Miss Laura Wilson, who resided with her sister, Mrs. Long, at Kings Mountain. Mrs. Thorne united with the Baptist Church when quite a young woman, and for more than fifty years she has been an active member of the Indian Creek Church. She was a loving wife, a devoted mother and grandmother, a true friend and a devout Christian, and will be missed by all who knew her. The funeral will take place this afternoon from her late residence, and will be conducted by her pastor, Rev. Smith, of Georgetown, assisted by Rev. A. S. Venable, of the Presbyterian Church, at Millersburg. Interment in the Millersburg Cemetery.
